

Holds

Holds

Failure to comply with various campus policies may result in holds that are placed on a student's WebOPUS account. Most holds prohibit student services such as registration, schedule modification, and processing academic transcript requests. Students must contact the office that placed the hold to make arrangements to have the hold removed.